

AIRLINES

Comprehensive Airline Insurance for Any Size Operation

Every aviation operation needs to find a comfortable fit with its insurance provider – and that’s especially true for airlines. You don’t just buy insurance from us, you hire another team member.

We tailor our service to the exact level that meets your specific needs. We can act as your claims department, handling all your passenger claims, serve as a behind-the-scenes adjunct to your claims department or create a custom arrangement just for you. We’ll become an extension of your culture. After all, passengers who make claims are your customers, and we want them to stay that way, dealt with fairly, promptly and as compassionately as if they were our own. A great cultural fit is important for another reason. Your lead insurer, along with your professional insurance representative, may be called upon to speak on your behalf. We have a long history of being strong, vocal advocates for our customers.

If the unthinkable happens, we have the team and experience to help you through it. We’ve handled major accidents for every size operation from regional customers to flag carriers. Some of those customers have been with us for more than 60 years.

Take a close look at our people, our culture and our track record. Then give us a call. Let us show you how we can do all of this for you.
